

The Gloucester OLD SPOT

We proudly claim the provenance of using Gloucestershire sourced ingredients wherever possible, however, we must be realistic when that comes to offering high quality wines. We do, of course, sell Gloucestershire wines, produced at the family owned Three Choirs Vineyard in Newent, that is just 16 miles from here. Please give them a go, they are excellent value, and you are supporting our counties' producers.

Over and above that, we purchase world wines from the excellent, family owned, local wine importers Talking Wines in Cirencester, just 24 miles away, knowing the money we spend with them goes towards employing local people. They purchase from independent wineries and you will not see these wines in the supermarkets. Of particular note are the three Villa Blanche wines on our list, sourced from the Languedoc region, and made by Calmel & Joseph. These 'Grand Vins' are multi award winners, distinctive and elegant, and would demand double the price were they made in Burgundy. The colour of the Syrah is a thing to behold and the 'chewiness' of the Chardonnay is a food paring triumph. Please think about spending that little bit more. It will bring you back for another bottle on another day.
